PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE ORDERING

ALL PRICES in this catalogue are for delivery free to any point east of the Mississippi, but orders under $ 15.00 should add $ 1.50 to help meet the heavy shipping expenses from Holland.

TERMS. Personal cheques, made out to Sven VanZonneveld, and enclosed with your order always acceptable. We also gladly open you a charge account, our longest term of credit being 90 days from date of invoice.

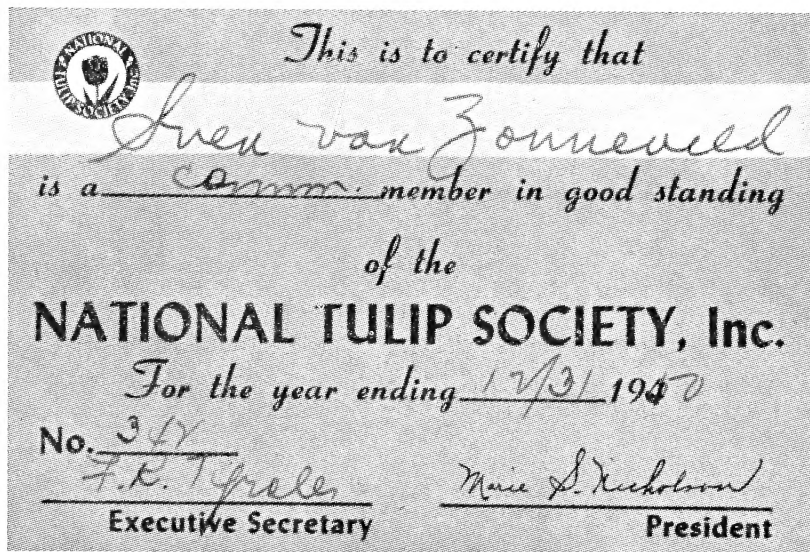

ARRIVAL OF SHIPMENTS. We carry no stock in Collegeville Pa. and all bulbs you order will be specially packed for you in Holland, at the Summerfield Bulb Farms. As we do not like our bulbs to travel during very hot weather, which is absolutely harmful to them, we do not deliver until the end of September. Arrival in good time for Fall planting is guaranteed for any locality.

GUARANTEE. All bulbs are guaranteed to be absolutely top size, true to name, genuine Holland Grown stock, as we have been shipping to exacting American Amateur Gardeners for a quarter of a century.

EARLY ORDERS earn a discount of 3% when received in Collegeville Pa. before or on August 1st. 1950, but we guarantee that orders received up to the middle of October can and will be executed in our now wellknown cream quality, and be delivered at the right time for Fall planting.

DELIVERY. Our Collegeville Pa. office takes care of all formalities connected with the entry of our bulbs into U.S.A. The American Railway Express delivers our bulbs to your door, carefully packed in Holland by experienced hands, so that your bulbs are handled only once, a fact of great importance. Every variety will be in a separate, ventilated bag, clearly labeled, so that no mistakes will occur.

QUALITY. Only the very best motherbulbs will be used to go into your order, so that you may rest assured that you will be thoroughly satisfied with the bulbs you receive from us.

IMPORTANT!

Please note substantial reductions in price catalogue.

FOREWORD

Since we were able in 1946, again to take up the export of our bulbs to the United States, the volume of business we have done, has been regularly increasing.

It is a very pleasant idea indeed, that the efforts we have been making to supply to our clients and friends, the best Holland produces in bulbs, have been so greatly appreciated.

We are glad to know that in Spring many gardens allthrough the United States are a riot of color, through our bulbs, and we can appreciate the keen pleasure our clients feel when in Spring they obtain from our bulbs just the flowers they expect. For we know that the keen Amateur Gardener visualises the sight his garden will be in Spring, when he plants his bulbs in the Fall. We are keen Amateur Gardeners ourselves, besides growing bulbs commercially, and are just as enthusiastic as you are, to see our bulbs bloom.

Exporting bulbs to your country during a quarter of a century has given us a clear understanding of what the American Amateur Gardener wants and our position in the center of the bulb district, where we have been connected with bulb growing for three generations, is a guarantee that you receive from us bulbs, grown under ideal conditions, and packed by experienced hands.

We shall be happy again to receive your order, which will be filled with the cream of the crop, true to name and with lots of vitality.

Sincerely,

SVEN VANZONNEVELD

THE WORLD'S BEST NARCISSI OR DAFFODILS

Narcissi, as is the botanical name, or daffodils as they are commonly called in English speaking countries, are easily among the most popular of the springflowering bulbs.

Early in April they are among the first harbingers of Spring and will cheerfully sprinkle their colors all over your garden. As heralds of a better time, more light and more sunshine, they are among the most charming of the bulbous flowers.

They take the March winds with beauty and will charmingly enliven a dreary afternoon late in March or early in April with the promise that Winter has gone.

They gay colors chiefly yellow and white, with all shades of red now represented in the newer varieties, both in large or smaller cups and eyes, will soon make you forget Winter's storms and snows.

The healthiest and cleanest stock, produce of a country where Daffodils have been successfully grown for ever so long, is at your disposal, at prices which will be a revelation to you after a fifteen year period during which they were shut out from your country.

The collections we offer in the various divisions are not made up at random, but have proven their merit and suitability for American Gardens and are, in every case, the best the price can buy.

DAFFODILS FOR NATURALISATION

One of the most beautiful sights in a garden in Spring, are drifts of naturalized daffodils. In thin woodlands, outlying grounds, shrubberies, orchards, grass etc. wherever you dispose of a suitable spot, they make a beautiful picture.

To encourage liberal plantings we have made up a special mixture of varieties all suitable for naturalization, both in the trumpets and shortcupped varieties, including all divisions.

We offer daffodil bulbs, all strong flowering size, healthy and plump round bulbs, which will give you a galaxy of beauty and a profusion of flowers extending over a period of nearly two months

1000 bulbs mixed varieties	$ 72.50	1000 bulbs in 10 named varieties our choice	$ 82.50

250 " " "	18.50	250 " " 10 " " " "	$ 21.00

This mixture is specially made up from varieties suitable for naturalization and cutting, and will be a source of beauty and pleasure for a number of years.

Special offer of six new large and beautiful Trumpet Daffodils

HUNTER'S MOON, unique coloring, clear shining cool and greenish lemon yellow, most intense at outer edge of beautiful, flanged trumpet.

LEINSTER, particular clear deep self lemon, large flower ideal for show, broad quite flat perianth and beautifully balanced trumpet. Vigorous grower.

PATRIA (Bicolor). Well formed large pure white perianth at right angles to beautifully serrated yellow trumpet. Large flower extremely well formed.

KANCHENJUNGA (all white) immense flower the broadest perianth segments ever seen, magnificently flanged and serrated trumpet, pure white perianth, palest lemon trumpet passing to white.

COLLECTION A. One large, doublenosed bulb of each of the six vars. $ 20.00

COLLECTION B. Three large, doublenosed bulbs of the six vars. (18 bulbs in all) $ 57.00

The above collection is absolutely outstanding and each variety is a certain winner on the exhibition table and eminently suited for the garden.

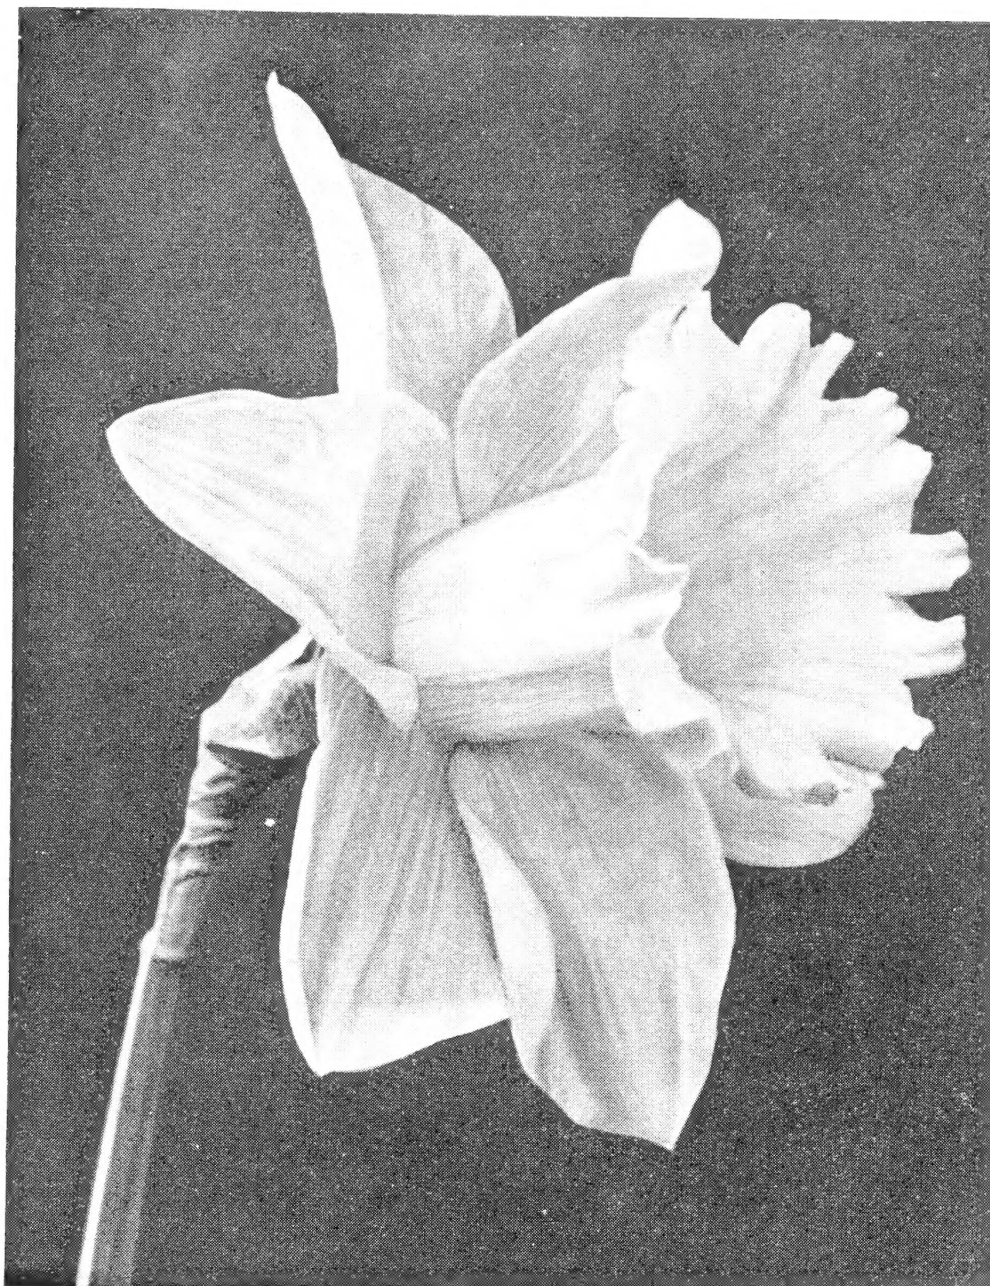

CONTENT, (Bicolor) different from any daffodil yet introduced, large trumpet after the style of Beersheba, with perianth broad and well overlapping, forming a noble triangle star. Clear soft primrose, passing to lemonade white, except brim of trumpet which remains lemon yellow.

MOUNT HOOD, (all white) magnificent pure white, well proportioned trumpet and excellently shaped perianth. Strong in the stem and vigorous grower.

A SUPERB COLLECTION OF DAFFODILS OR NARCISSI

The following list of daffodils has been compiled with the view to select from the 7500 named varieties, registered by the Royal Horticultural Society of England, only such as have proved their merit and suitability for American Gardens. We wish to state emphatically that prices are for large double nosed motherbulbs only, which throw from 2 to 4 flowers from a bulb, according to class and variety.

The figure in () gives relative time of flowering, 1 being the earliest and 6 the latest.

Yellow Trumpet daffodil
LORD
WELLINGTON

p. doz. $ 6.00

RUSTOM PASHA (3), large striking flower of a gorgeous color, widespread, pointed & deep golden yellow perianth. Cup opens dull orange and deepens to vivid tangerine scarlet, which is absolutely sunproof. Tall strong stem and vigorous grower. A first class variety for garden decoration by reason of it's sunproof color Each $ 1.00

SCARLET LEADER (3), this is a flower with great individuality. Creamy white, round, perfectly overlapping perianth segments. Crown flat, 1 1/2 inches across, bright red down to the center and a color which does not soon fade. Large flower of irreproachable symmetry, splendid grower and excellent garden plant p. doz. $ 3.00

STAR OF THE WEST (3), syn. Scarlet Elegans. One of the greatest attractions at recent shows. Perfectly formed, rather pointed petals, very dark golden yellow in colour. Well proportioned elegantly frilled crown, very dark orange scarlet throughout. One of the very best novelties, excellent for the garden p. doz. $ 1.50

WHITELEY GEM (1) quite recently this daffodil was awarded a gold medal as the best flower in the London daffodil show. Extremely early, and one of the earliest red cupped flowers to bloom. Very fine deep golden yellow, slightly overlapping perianth, with well proportioned, bright orange, finely fluted cup. A beautifully balanced flower on tall stem p. doz. $ 2.50 p. 100 $ 18.00

YELLOW POPPY (3), well formed flowers, with overlapping primrose yellow perianth and expanded, shallow bright yellow crown, edged orange. Excellent variety for the garden and naturalising p. doz. $ 1.25 p. 100 $ 9.00

DIVISION II.

Class B: Large cupped narcissi, perianth white.

AGRA (3), this is one of the best red and white flowers for the garden and for exhibition. Beautiful, flat, white perianth with large brilliant orange-scarlet cup, which does not fade in the sun. Very vigorous plant, rapid increaser, free blooming and longlasting p. doz. $ 2.00 p. 100 $ 12.00

COVERACK GEM (4), a beautiful flower, for which no praise is too high. The heavy pure white, flat well rounded perianth is in beautiful contrast to the very large, flat and deeply frilled red crown, which shades down to gold at the base. It grows splendidly, is very lasting, and a perfect delight to the eye p. doz. $ 2.50

CICELY (2), clean cut, pure white perianth standing quite flat and smooth, with palest lemon crown passing soon to white. As the flower ripens the texture seems to gain solidity and substance till it looks as if it were cut out of white marble. Tall, early, very free bloomer, excellent increaser and long lasting p. doz. $ 2.00 p. 100 $ 12.00

DAISY SCHAEFFER (3), strong vigorous novelty, of exceptional beauty. Graceful, well rounded perianth of purest white with a large primrose cup beautifully tinted greenish yellow at the mouth. Magnificent for show and garden. Strong plant, free flowering and rapidly increasing

p. doz. $ 2.00 p. 100 $ 12.00

FRANCISCA DRAKE (3), silvery white, rather twisted perianth segments, with a large bold crown of bright orange red, deeply fluted and elegantly frilled. Unusual, very distinct flower, striking through the brilliant cup p. doz. $ 1.50 p. 100 $ 10.00

IDEAL DARWIN TULIPS.

We are introducing this new group of tulips, a result of intercrossing Darwin with Breeder and other long stemmed tulips, because of their beautiful colors, lovely forms and great lasting qualities. They may be considered as forerunners to the other Darwins, because they flower a couple of days earlier, and are in full bloom when the other Darwins begin to flower.

They combine all the excellent qualities of the other Darwins, adding to them larger flowers, excellent lasting quality, newer colors and clearer tones.

They add a new interest to the group of Mayflowering tulips and we recommend planting them in liberal groups in the border to enhance the pleasure tulip time gives you.

The figure in () gives the height in inches.

UNSURPASSED COLLECTION OF BEAUTIFUL DARWINTULIPS.

No other race of tulips has ever enjoyed such a huge popularity as the Darwintulips. They are more largely grown every year, and considering their great beauty, this is not to be wondered at. Darwintulips, with heir elegant forms, exquisite coloring, and long wiry stems, which brave even very strong and lasting winds, are unsurpassed for garden decoration

Whether planted in the border, in groups against a background of evergreens or in beds in the lawn, the combinations of delicate shades which may be made in any spot, will never fail to attract attention. Their beauty is enthralling and no lover of tulips should be without them. They also make an inimitable material for indoor decoration when cut.

The first figure following the name of each variety gives its height in inches: the second its relative time of flowering.

A STANDARD COLLECTION OF MAYFLOWERING OR COTTAGE TULIPS.

The name Cottage tulips has been given to various beautiful Mayflowering tulips, which have mostly been found growing in old Cottage Gardens in England, where they had been, in some cases, for over 50 years. Some of them have also been traced to old French gardens.

No race of tulips varies so much in form and habit as the Cottage Tulips. However it is just this quality, which gives them such a unique position as a material for the artistic decoration of your Garden. Some of them are carried on long stems, other varieties have a more pliable stem, and gracefully swing in the breeze. Some flowers are well rounded, others again are pointed, while a few of them have elegantly recurving petals.

All shades are represented in this race and consequently they may be used in all places. Cottage or Mayflowering tulips are always highly attractive, whether planted between low growing shrubbery, in loosely scattered groups in the border, or in isolated groups in front of Conifers or Rhododendrons etc.

The first figure following the name of each variety gives its height in inches; the second its relative of flowering.

OUR INIMITABLE COLLECTION OF HANDSOME BREEDER OR OLD DUTCH MOTHER TULIPS.

This handsome race of Tulips, in form much like the Darwins, forms a group entirely separate from all others, as far as the colors are concerned. Their flowers have a kind of sombre flush, which makes them so fascinating, that they took all tulip lovers by storm in no time. Their colors are so refined, and tones are so artistically blended, that they may safely be called art tulips. Their bronze tones, which is the ruling shade, lend a reposing contrast to the gayer shades of the Mayflowering and Darwintulips, and introduce that much coveted note of distinction to your garden. In addition to this, many varieties are sweet scented.

Every lover of tulips, who has not yet experienced the fascination which emanates from them, should no longer deny himself the impression, without which he has not to the fullest extent, enjoyed the beauties of the Tulip race.

The first figure following the name of each variety gives its height in inches: the second iets relative time of flowering.

OUR „CREAM” COLLECTION OF SINGLE EARLY TULIPS.

There are hardly any spring flowers that can compare with the beauty and the brilliant color of the early tulips. They are excellent subjects for formal beds and for edgings in the border, and while they do not possess the long stems of the other groups of tulips which flower in May, their colors are very brilliant and they flower about a month ahead of the other tulips.

The first figure following the name of each variety gives its height in inches: the second the relative time of flowering.

OUR SPLENDID COLLECTION OF DOUBLE EARLY TULIPS.

The various varieties of double early tulips, are unsurpassed for formal bedding, on account of their short growing habit and distinct colors. They throw up their large double flowers in endless profusion. White, red and yellow varieties of the same height, planted in lines of 3 or 4 rows of each color form beds of true beauty. Given a sunny site, fairly rich soil and good drainage, they will produce a prolonged and gorgeous show of blossoms.

The first figure following the name of each variety gives its height in inches: the second its relative time of flowering.

LILY FLOWERED COTTAGE TULIPS.

This race of tulips, which are chiefly descendants from the old Retroflexa, provide through their beautiful forms (they have all reflexing petals) the gothic lines which were missing in tulips. Some of them are beautifully urn shaped and the newer introductions are carried on excellent strong and tall stems, as they are results from intercrossing the older varieties with Darwins & Breeders with good stems. They make a beautiful picture in the garden and should be most effective when they have a congenial background.

They bloom simultaneously with the other Cottage tulips.

ALASKA (24 inches), clear bright yellow, most remarkable tulip of very elegant form. Long and slender flower of a most even, soft yellow color with slightly reflexed outer petals. Fragrant

p. doz. $ 1.25 p. 100 $ 7.50

ELEGANS ALBA (24 inches), this is a lovely creamy-white tulip, with a very narrow carmin margin that does not spread as the flower ripens. The flower is elegantly urn shaped and the tips of the petals are charmingly reflexed

p. doz. $ 1.50 p. 100 $ 10.00

GOLDEN DUCHESS (26 inches), one of the loveliest Lilyflowered tulips. Color beautiful golden yellow all over with flowers charmingly urn shaped. A great improvement over Retroflexa

p. doz. $ 2.00 p. 100 $ 12.00

MARCELLINE (26 inches), this may be safely called a glorified Sirene. Rosy red with pure white center and the best lilyflowered tulip in this color

p. doz. $ 1.25 p. 100 $ 7.50

PARROT OR DRAGON TULIPS.

BLUE PARROT, this is a sport from the wellknown Darwintulip Blue Aimable. It has the same beautiful silvery lilac color all overlaid with a glowing sheen. Flower of enormous size, quaintly feathered and lacinated. Outstanding novelty

p. doz. $ 1.25 p. 100 $ 8.00

FANTASY, a wonderful pink Parrot tulip, the best of all. It is a sport from the wellknown Darwintulip Clara Butt, and its color is the same strong erect apple-blossom pink. It has the same strong erect stem, the same height and flowers simultaneously with its parent p. doz. $ 1.50 p. 100 $ 10.00

GADELAN, a stunning new introduction in Parrot-tulips. May be compared to that beautiful orchid called Cattleya. It measures six to seven inches across when fully developed, and has a beautiful open form. Outside the color shows a harmonious blend of blue and violet with apple green veins, the petals being narrowly margined white. The inside is bright violet with a pure white base and contrasting black anthers. It is a most beautiful companion to Parrottulip Fantasy p. doz. $ 2.00

LADY DERBY, sport from Darwintulip Saes, and therefore not liable to drooping, as it has a strong stem. Petals Parmaviolet in colour, edged pale pink and white. Small white centre edged blue. A beautiful Parrot tulip with deeply lacinated petal edges p. doz. $ 1.50 p. 100 $ 10.00

OPAL QUEEN (syn. Violet Queen). New introduction of outstanding merits, more looking like a huge

THE BRIDE (20 inches), this is a beautiful novelty of great merit. A very large, lovely, absolutely pure white flower of beautiful form borne on an excellent stem. Highly recommended

p. doz. $ 1.75 p. 100 $ 10.00

WHITE CROSS (26 inches), strikingly beautiful novelty of pure white color. The flowers are very large and the outer petals are elegantly reflexed while the inner petals stand erect giving the flower an extremely interesting form

p. doz. $ 1.75 p. 100 $ 10.00

WHITE DUCHESS (32 inches), extremely refined, pure white flower, chaste and pure in its butterfly-like beauty. The recurving and slightly twisted petals give the flowers the appearance of a beautiful white Lily. Plant in semi shade against a congenial background and the effect will be splendid p. doz. $ 1.50 p. 100 $ 9.00

Cattleya than like a tulip. Soft silvery violet with slight applegreen markings and a pure white base. Beautiful wavy petals, elegantly fringed and lacinated. Flower of enormous size borne on strong stem and a gem in the tulip world

p. doz. $ 1.50 p. 100 $ 10.00

RED CHAMPION (26) this is another Parrot tulip sported from a Darwin. Beautiful scarlet color, with finely lacinated petals and excellent form of flower. The flower, though well sized, is not too heavy for the excellent wiry stem. Highly recommended . . . p. doz. $ 2.25 p. 100 $ 12.00

SUNSHINE, an unusual flower, sport from may-flowering tulip Bouton d'Or. Color a clear golden yellow deeply lacinated and cut, sometimes with slight green markings

p. doz. $ 2.25 p. 100 $ 15.00

THERESE, another parrot sported from a Darwin i.e. Mr. Farncombe Sanders. It has its parent's glowing bright scarlet color and is a showy blossom exceptionally huge size, with a pure white base. The petals are deeply fringed and lacinated the form of the flower open and the inside dazzling deep rose. The stem is strong and tall

p. doz. $ 2.00 p. 100 $ 12.00

BOTANICAL TULIPS (TULIPAS).

These tulips are in the majority natives from Minor and Central Asia, whence originally all ancestors of our present tulips came. They form an excellent material for the rockgarden, where they fit extremely well, when planted in clumps of greater or lesser size. They feel also quite at Home in clumps in the Border, while a few varieties like Fosteriana have such enormous flowers that even isolated specimens are grand. Some of them have dazzlingly bright colors and altogether they form a very attractive group, flowering in May, unless otherwise mentioned. No rock-garden can be called complete, that does not contain them. The figure in () indicates the height in inches.

ACUMINATA (CORNUTA) (16), scarlet and gold, flowers in April p. doz. $ 1.50 p. 100 $ 11.00

CHRYSANTHA (6), a novel species of very elegant form. Small glaucous leaves. Strong stem. Very fragrant flowers: inside yellow, outside red p. doz. $ 1.25 p. 100 $ 9.00

FOSTERIANA PRINCEPS (12), a Fosteriana seedling of excellent merits. Outside dazzling vermilion scarlet with a slight yellow flush through center of petals. Beautiful open form of flower and magnificent grey green foliage. A gem for the rock garden or for a dazzling spot of colour in the border . . . p. doz. $ 2.00 p. 100 $ 12.00

FOSTERIANA RED EMPEROR (16), another beautiful Fosteriana seedling often coming with 2 flowers on one stem. Such a dazzling vermilion scarlet that to look at it is almost blinding. A huge flower of a truly regal appearance borne on an excellent stem. A gem for a sheltered nook in the rock garden or for the border p. doz. $ 2.00 p. 100 $ 10.00

KAUFMANNIANA (9), pale primrose and white sometimes flamed carmine on outside of petals. Also called „the Waterlily Tulip”. The first tulip to bloom. Naturalises perfectly, and flowers in late March or April. Excellent variety for rock garden and in the front of the border

p. doz. $ 1.25 p. 100 $ 7.50

KAUFMANNIANA BRILLIANT (9), quite as early as its parent and of same form, but brilliant Turkish red in colour. Novelty

p. doz. $ 3.00 p. 100 $ 20.00

KAUFMANNIANA ELLIOT (10), quite the same flower as Kaufmanniana, but fully twice as large. Creamy white, flamed and striped lilac-red. Opens well and strikingly resembles a Waterlily. Flowers a fortnight before other Kaufmannianas. New, notable introduction listed exclusively in our catalogue . . . p. doz. $ 1.50 p. 100 $ 10.00

KAUFMANNIANA LADY ROSE, it is very difficult to give an adequate description of this beautiful sport from tulipa Kaufmanniana. The general effect is an exquisite blend of soft rosy, ivory white and pure white which really surpasses all imagination. It has the same handsome waterlily like form of its parent tul. Kaufmanniana and is a flower of enormous size. A few specimens in a sheltered nook of your rock garden will offer a never-to-be-forgotten picture. HYACINTHS.

Undoubtedly Hyacinths are mostly thought of as flowers of a rather stiff habit, eminently suitable for formal or design bedding, but hardly ever as a material of great value in naturalistic plantings. Still Hyacinths may fully harmonize with their surroundings and form charming early Spring pictures, full of color and beauty, if you create the opportunity. You may use them to great advantage in small groups in the hardy border or in irregular patches before low growing shrubs, in among evergreens or before an old red brick wall. They will also create a wonderful effect when interspersed with suitable Spring flowering plants, such as Alyssum, Arabis, Aubrietia, English Daisies, Forget-me-nots, Pansies or Wallflowers. Choose your favorite colours which are certainly represented among the many varieties we list, and blooming plants to contrast or harmoniously blend with these colours, and you will be quite surprised to see what Hyacinths will do for you.

CROCUS.

No flower belongs so essentially to Spring as the Crocus. They will bravely show up their pure colors, when the snow is scarcely melted and storms may be raging. No flower hails the arrival of Spring in a more charming way. They are in their freshness so irresistible, that they banish all thought of dark Winter, spreading through everything that surrounds them the one bright idea that better, sunnier days are due.

They will flower, grow, naturalise and multiply almost in any place, be it in lawns, borders, among shrubbery, in the rock-garden or under trees. They should be used in liberal quantities and preferably in separate colors. Scatter them freely and naturally about and plant as they fall wherever a spot, where they may be left undisturbed, is available. Endless combinations of colours, one running into the other, may be made.

MISCELLANEOUS BULBS.

The miscellaneous bulbs contain excellent material for the early spring and rock garden. When the snow has scarcely melted, the wellknown Chionodoxa, so aptly called Glory of the Snow, show their elegant little flowers, clear sky blue with white eye (C. Luciliae) or deep Gentian blue (C. Sardensis) while the scarce but beautiful C. Giganteum adds a distinguished note of lavender. Muscari Azureum and Scilla Bifolia are also among the earliest of blue Spring flowers. They are respectively the first of the Muscari and the Scilla's to bloom, and followed by Muscari Armeniacum, Muscari Heavenly Blue, and the blue Muscari Botryoides, the blooming period of blue Spring flowers may be extended over several weeks when a judicious selection is made. Then come Scilla Nutans, the true English Bluebell and Scilla Campanulata. They flower in late April or May. Where you have room, large or small, by all means introduce these little wonders, into your garden, and use them liberally to give the desired effect.

Eranthis or Winter Aconites, that quaint little yellow flower is also among the first to hail Spring. It will thrive everywhere, even under heavy trees where few flowers are at Home. We certainly should not forget the pure white fragile Snowdrop, which little though it is, is irresistible in its very frailness, Fritillaria Meleagris (Guinea Hen Flower), with their handsomely spotted, pendant flowers, admirable material for the rock-garden, Ixia with their stiff stems, but flaring colors, and nearly always a glaring eye in the centre of each flower, attract attention everywhere. Carefully study the following list, and have these attractive little wonders in your Garden through all Spring.

LILIUM DAVIDI (syn. Sutchuenense)

HARDY LILIES FOR AMERICAN GARDENS!

Within the entire range of summer flowers, none are more beautiful than the hardy lilies.

What more worthy successors to the spring beauty of tulips can you wish to coax into flower in your garden, to enhance its beauty from early in June right up to the Fall.

Lilies are wonderfully effective and striking yet exquisitely graceful in the garden picture and many varieties do not present any difficulty in growing, if you are ready to take a little trouble and give them surroundings which coincide to some extent with their natural habitat.

Lilies love a spot where the surface soil, and later the base of their stems is kept cool by surrounding shrubs, a hedge, evergreens or plants in the herbaceous border. The soil should be absolutely porous ensuring perfect drainage, so that they run no risk of getting wet feet. Do not let fresh stable manure touch the bulbs. Better give a top dressing of well decayed cow manure or bonemeal after planting, which can drain in with succeeding rains.

Ensure perfect drainage by working into the soil, under the bulbs, a good layer of say 6 to 8 inches coarse coal ashes. Mix the soil in which they are to grow out of equal parts of leafmold, peat and coarse sand. Better still, place the bulbs on a cushion of sharp sand, and surround the whole bulb by it, to prevent decay. This will cause some extra work at the outset, but you will be amply repaid for it, for do not forget, that once they have been planted, lilies should not be disturbed for years, and will improve their flowering capacity when they are left to bloom in the same spot.

Lilies do not like to be crowded, but roots of nearby growing plants loosen the soil, and lilies like to work in their roots between the roots of nearby plants.

In addition accompanying plants act as a foil to their flowers and set them off to better effect.

Another important factor is to plant sufficiently deep. Among Lilies are quite a few varieties, which in addition to the roots, issuing from the base of the bulb, send forth from the stem, just above the top of the bulb, quite a mob of additional roots. They are called stem rooting and these roots should not be damaged by frost or careless digging. Moreover, if you yearly feed these roots with a layer of well decayed cow manure or bonemeal you will greatly assist these stem roots in finding the necessary food.

Therefore we give the depth at which to plant with each variety. Our collection contains varieties presenting no or little difficulty in growing and given the care as outlined should present no difficulties in American Gardens.

Fall planting is highly preferable and we can deliver these bulbs before the end of November. If you might fear frost will set in before the bulbs arrive, have the spots where you intend to plant your lilies prepared, and covered with reeds, dry leaves, coarse grass or any other material. This will keep the frost out and you may plant your bulbs on arrival, at once replacing the cover. The bulbs will take no harm from frost, the more so as they will be planted sufficiently deep.

For the convenience of our clients we have prepared a collection which will ensure flowers during the entire summer, from early in June right up to the Fall.

JUNE FLOWERING VARIETIES

CROCEUM, a very strong bright orange color, lending an extremely brilliant note to the garden. Flowers borne in an upright position. Very hardy variety, thriving in any soil, both in a sunny position or in semi shade. Stem rooting, plant 5 inches deep, height 3 feet p. doz. $ 5.00

ELEGANS (syn. Thunbergianum), eminently suitable for planting in the front row of the border as they do not attain a very great height. They are of a very thrifty nature, and succeed everywhere. Flower in loose clusters, the flowers borne in an upright position at the top of the stem. Stem rooting plant 8 to 9 inches deep, height 24/26 inches variety

Kikak, golden orange, spotted black p. doz. $ 4.00
Bicolor, orange red, spotted crimson

p. doz. $ 4.00
Mahony, mahogany brown . . . p. doz. $ 4.00
Sanguineum, dark red p. doz. $ 4.00

HANSONI, one of the most desirable lilies. Not very capricious as regards soil or place in the garden, so long as the flowers are not all day exposed to the full sun. Bright yellow with strongly reflexed petals, spotted crimson. Stem rooting, plant 10 inches deep, height 4 feet . . p. doz. $ 10.00

MARTAGON, or so called Turkish cap Lily. One of the oldest lilies in cultivation. Very graceful, vigorous and free flowering, giving often from 20 to 30 flowers. Beautiful purple. Highly satisfactory in the border and very effective when planted in large groups. Base rooting plant 6 inches deep, height 4 feet p. doz. $ 5.00

TENUIFOLIUM, charming early flowering lily, with deep scarlet flowers of waxy texture. Gem for the rock garden and the border. Likes a cool, damp and loamy soil and semi shade. Stem rooting plant 7 inches deep, height 18 to 24 inch. p. doz. $ 2.50

TENUIFOLIUM GOLDEN GLEAM, robust and freeflowering hybrid, bringing numerous pure yellow orange flowers. Flowers splendidly every year. Stem rooting, plant 7 inches deep, height 18 to 24 inches p. doz. $ 3.00

TESTACEUM, also known as „Excelsum” and Nankeen Lily”, one of the most beautiful of all the lily family. Quite the same texture as Lilium Candidum, but with reflexed petals. Dull apricot in colour with handsomely contrasting orange anthers. One of the best lilies for the border, but should not be crowded by other plants. Give a shady spot and plant only 2 inches deep. Base rooting. Height 5 to 6 feet Each $ 1.25 p. doz. $ 12.00

UMBELLATUM, an early flowering group of Lilies, among the oldest in cultivation. They grow easily, are very vigorous and flower in loose clusters in an erect position on the top of the stem. They are by no means capricious, and will thrive in any good, well drained soil. Very effective when planted in groups in front of a suitable background, evergreens, a hedge or other border plants. Plant 4 inches deep. Height 20 to 24 inches.

var. APRICOT, well opened, large flowers, apricot colored, changing to orange yellow towards center, lightly spotted dark brown . . p. doz. $ 4.00

var. VERMILLION BRILLIANT, splendid vermilion, deepening to rich blood red. Interior slightly spotted black. Very free flowering p. doz. $ 4.00

var. GOLDEN FLEECE, well opened, large orange yellow flowers, spotted brown in center, later changing to salmon orange at tip of petals. Very beautiful variety p. doz. $ 4.00

var. ORANGE TRIUMPH, well opened, large flowers, glowing orange red, changing to orange towards center, slightly spotted black. One of the best in the group p. doz. $ 4.00

PARDALINUM GIGANTHEUM MAGNIFICUM, sometimes called „the Sunset Lily”. A highly recommended variety with very strong flower spikes and very large flowers. Outer petals scarlet orange, inner half bright orange, thickly dotted purplish brown. Base rooting, plant 5 deep. Height 6 feet p. doz. $ 6.00

PRINCEPS G. C. CREELMAN, one of the latest outstanding introductions, easy to grow, dependable and hardy, prolific and very free flowering. Long lasting, very long flowers, an improvement on Lily Regale. The bronze tone is slightly more pronounced than in the Regal Lily and the yellow throat a little more intense. Entirely free from ordinary lily diseases. Highly recommended. Plant 10 inches deep. Height 4 to 5 feet. Flowers a fortnight after Lilium Regale Each $ 1.25 p. doz. $ 11.00

REGALE (selected, particularly free flowering strain). We offer a selected strain obtained through careful segregation, which is very prolific and floriferous. The Regale Lily thrives in any good garden soil, and is highly benefitted when liquid manure (cow) is applied while growing. Flowers white, flushed

JULY FLOWERING VARIETIES

DAVIDI (syn. Sutchuenense), an absolutely hardy variety, with a robust constitution, with cinnabar red, Tiger lily like flowers, and graceful narrow foliage. One of the best summer flowering lilies, highly recommended. Plant 6 inches deep, height 4 feet p. doz. $ 6.00

p. doz. $ 3.50

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER FLOWERING VARIETIES

HENRYI, one of the most vigorous lilies which seldom disappoints the gardener. One of the best lilies for the border, doing well in both sandy and loamy soil, but delighting in peat. Vigorous growth and soundest constitution. Magnificent for planting among shrubs and rhododendrons. Very free flowering with deep orange yellow flowers. Stem rooting, plant 10 inches deep, height 5 feet

p. doz. $ 6.00

FORMOSANUM, WHITE QUEEN, flowers and habit of plant as the White Excelsior variety (see under July flowering varieties) but flowering late in August beginning of September p. doz. $ 4.50

SPECIOSUM VARIETIES. This group consists of several varieties, those mentioned in our collection having great value as borderplants. Flowers with strongly recurving petals, and handsomely contrasting anthers. Vigorous plants, boldly formed flowers in late summer and early Fall. Very easy to grow in any good soil, but must be planted 10 inches deep. The top soil should be well enriched with decayed cow manure or bonemeal to encourage the stem roots. Height 3 to 4 feet. Deliciously scented.

var. ALBUM, pure white shaded green through base of each petal. Each $ 1.25 p. doz. $ 12.00

var. RUBRUM MAGNIFICUM, stands out for its richness of color. Brilliant carmine edged white. Bold and very large flower, the best of the group p. doz. $ 8.00
